Ill Health Assigned as Reason for Henry J. Hoevel's Suicide-Opens Door for Daughter Who Hears Groans.

Henry J. Hoevel, 48 years old, formerly a policeman and also a fireman in St. Louis, committed suicide yesterday morning at his home, No. 8135 Florissant avenue, by cutting his throat from ear to car. Ill health is given as the reason for the deed.

Roevel, who had been employed as a watchman for the St. Louis Car Works in Baden, had been sick for three or four fays. Testerialy morning about 10 o'clock lays. Testerday morning about 18 o'clock Mrs. Hoevel persuaded him to go to bed. After he retired to his room she went to the butcher store.

The wife had hardly left the house when a daughter, Mrs. Hattle Jerner, who lives upstairs, heard greams, and rushing down to her father's room, found the door closed and locked.

Mrs. Jerner pounded on the door and cried to her rather to open it. She heard a movement inside the room and then the door opened. Her taiher was on his kneed and the door and cried to her rather to open it. She heard a movement inside the room and then the door opened. Her taiher was on his kneed behind the door and overed with blood. As she entered he felt over on the floor. Doctor Harder of No. 8015 Floriseant avenue was hastily summoned, but Hoevel boctor Harder of No. 30% Florisagnt ave-nue was hastily summoned, but Hoevel was beyond medical assistance and died in a few minutes.

From the appearance of the room and the blood stains, it is supposed that Hoe-vel stood before a mirror on a dresser and cut his throat.
